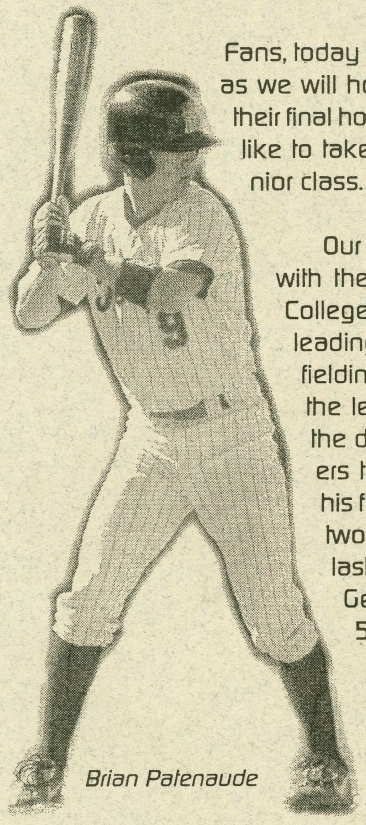
TERPS TODAY

Senior Salute 2001

Maryland vs. Florida State
May 6, 2001



Brian Patenaude

Fans, today is a special day here at Shipley Field as we will honor our seniors who are playing in their final home ACC contest. At this time, we would like to take a few moments and honor our senior class.

Our first senior is in his second season with the Terps after transferring from Marist College. He has been a stalwart defensively, leading all ACC shortstops last season in fielding percentage and is ranked among the league leaders again this season. At the dish, he is one of five Maryland starters to have a .300 average. In perhaps his finest game as a Terrapin, he launched two home runs and drove in five at home last season against NC State. Ladies and Gentleman, from Brewster, N.Y., number 5 Sean Lomas.

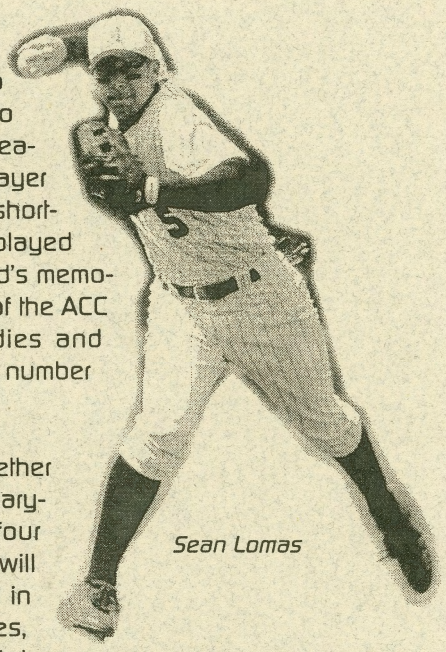
Our next senior is also a transfer and in his second campaign with the Terps. After a productive season at Allegany College, he has become one of the team's most dependable and durable pitchers in the starting rotation. This season, he is tied for the team lead in victories and is third on the club in innings pitched. Ladies and Gentlemen, from Manassas, Va., number 22 Mark Martin.

Chuck Easter

This senior has been one of the top hitters in school history in just two seasons at Maryland. After transferring from St. Mary's College, he has recorded a .341 batting average, tenth-highest in school history. As a junior, he smacked 19 doubles, the third-highest single season total ever at Maryland. This season, he is leading the team in home runs and RBIs and recorded his first career two-home run game earlier in the week against Towson. Ladies and Gentleman, from Clinton, Md., number 14 Steve Oursler.

Our next senior has been one of the most versatile infielders over his career in College Park. After starting his freshman and sophomore campaigns, a back injury has forced him to miss most of the last two seasons. A skilled defensive player who has played third base, shortstop and second base, he played a prominent role in Maryland's memorable run to the third round of the ACC Tournament in 1999. Ladies and Gentleman, from Annapolis, number 8 Mike D'Archangelo.

Steve Oursler



Sean Lomas

The next senior has put together one of the finest careers in Maryland baseball history. In four years in College Park, he will leave ranked in the Top 10 in career at-bats, hits, doubles, extra-base hits, walks, total bases, sacrifice hits and hit by a pitch. This year, he leads the club with a .362 batting average and with 64 hits. Also an outstanding student in the classroom, he is a three-time ACC Honor Roll member and an academic-all american candidate. Ladies and Gentleman, from Marietta Ga., number 9 Brian Patenaude.

Our final senior has been one of the most consistent players in Maryland baseball history. A career .300 hitter, he became the first Maryland player in 108 years of baseball to hit for the cycle earlier this season at UMBC. He will also leave ranked in the top three in career walks, doubles and hit by a pitch. An excellent student that has been named to the ACC honor four times, he has been quite productive both on the diamond and in the classroom. Ladies and gentleman, from Baltimore, number 25 Chuck Easter.

Mark Martin

Fans, please join me and give our senior class a round of applause for their outstanding careers at Maryland.